Robert E. Wick
12-9-65

At the conclusion of his training period, Mr. Clegg said he created a very favorable impression, had an excellent attitude, was classed in the high average in his class, and it was believed he would develop into an above average Agent soon after arriving in the field and would require only average supervision. Although qualified in the use of all Bureau firearms, he needed additional attention with the .30 Rifle. On 10-10-42 he was assigned to New Haven.

On 12-5-42 SAC Simons said he was rather quiet in demeanor but he got along well with the other personnel, was considered good for his experience, and it was believed he had possibilities of further progress in the Bureau.

During an inspection of the New Haven Office in December 1942, Inspector Harbo said he was mature, energetic, and sincere, it was believed he was developing satisfactorily, and that he had favorable prospects for further development.

On 2-6-43 he was transferred to Newark. On 2-20-43 SAC Simons rated him as GOOD and said his work generally was above average for an Agent of his experience and it was possible to assign to him cases of a more involved nature than were usually assigned to new Agents, made a satisfactory witness, required more experience in dictation, although he qualified in firearms he made slightly below average scores, it was felt he was above average for his experience and that he had good possibilities for progress in the Bureau.

On 3-31-43 SAC McKee rated him as GOOD and said he made a good appearance, had a friendly manner and a good personality, seemed to be of average aggressiveness, had worked on a variety of applicant, general investigative and National Defense matters, his investigations had been handled in a competent manner and his reports were well written, was an average dictator but needed more experience in dictation, had developed a number of informants and sources of information, his firearms scores were a little below the average, was married, had one child and was not particularly interested in SIS, his progress had been satisfactory, and it was felt he would continue to develop.

During an inspection of the Newark Office in April and May 1942, Inspector Harbo said he was mature, intelligent, alert and business-like in manner, appeared energetic, conscientious and interested in his work, was considered a bit above average for his period of service with favorable prospects for further development, and his status was rated as GOOD.

On 6-14-43 he was designated as Resident Agent at Camden. On 10-21-43 SAC McKee rated him as VERY GOOD and said he had a sufficient degree of force and aggressiveness, was capable of exercising tact and diplomacy, made a good impression, was very cooperative and he indicated a good general attitude and interest in his work, had handled his investigations in a very capable manner, demonstrated a good understanding of Bureau policies and procedures, seemed to possess a good degree of investigative technique, his reports were properly prepared and had been very clear in detail, his work generally had required very little supervision, was a good dictator, it was felt he was well qualified to handle himself on a dangerous assignment, and he might possess supervisory ability.

On 11-16-43 he was reallocated to CAF-10, $3500. On 3-31-44 SAC McKee rated him as VERY GOOD and reported he made a very good appearance, had a good personality, made a good impression at first meeting, had been very cooperative and had shown a good general attitude and interest in his work, presented entirely adequate force and aggressiveness in the conduct of his duties, satisfactory dictator, had been a creditable witness, could be used on dangerous assignments, his reports were well prepared and required but little supervision, was well liked by law enforcement officials, made contacts of this type as well as of a general business nature very effectively, his work was well organized and carried on, possessed a good degree of investigative technique, his acceptance of responsibility was rather good and he discharged his duties with minimum supervision, functioned well on his own initiative, it was felt he possessed supervisory ability in an average or better amount, and that this had been demonstrated in a somewhat good fashion through his handling of his own assignments.

On 4-19-44 SAC McKee was authorized to utilize this Agent in speaking engagements.

Mr. Treadwell interviewed him during In-Service in April 1944 and commented he presented an average good appearance, displayed a very mature type of personality for one of his age, was sincere, had a deep, resonant voice, appeared to have an abundance of self-confidence and to create a generally wholesome impression upon introduction, and it was believed he would develop supervisory ability with more field experience.

✓ On 5-3-44 this Agent was censured for the loss of his official Tax Exemption Identification Card.

During an inspection of the Newark Office in October 1944, the Inspector (J. A. Robey) said he made a mature appearance, had a good personality, was intelligent and well poised, made a favorable impression, appeared to be progressing satisfactorily, and his status was rated as VERY GOOD.

On 1-13-45 SAC McKee rated him as EXCELLENT and indicated he made a very good appearance, had a good personality, was mature and handled himself with well above average force and aggressiveness, was regarded as a rather well rounded Agent, organized his work well for dictation and was rated as very good in ability to dictate, left a good impression as a witness, could be used on dangerous assignments, his paper work showed adequate preparation, was thorough, and required less than average supervision, was very effective in contact work, particularly with police confidential informant, organized his own work well, was familiar with his cases, operated on his own initiative with minimum supervision, supervised his own work very well, his acceptance of responsibility was rather full, had done an effective job as resident agent, and it was felt he possessed average or better supervisory ability. On 2-7-45 he was reallocated to Grade CAF-11, $3800 per annum.

✓ On 3-12-45, he was transferred to the Washington Field Division because of an error made by him and another Agent in dealing with local officers and it was felt his usefulness had been destroyed in the city in which he was assigned. (Details in second paragraph, Page 4)

On 3-31-45, SAC McKee rated him VERY GOOD and said he handled himself with well above average force and aggressiveness, possessed maturity, his interest, industry and degree of cooperativeness were of a high order, he was a very good dictator, had displayed very good ability as a witness, had handled a number of assignments involving personal danger with good effectiveness, was well suited for use on dangerous assignments, had successfully handled a number of physical surveillances, was very effective in contact work, his paper work was competently handled with less than average supervision being required and he was well liked by law enforcement officers. His investigations were outstanding, he organized and began his work well on his own initiative and worked his cases hard, he had displayed ingenuity, was above average in production, accepted responsibility very fully and the manner in which he handled his own assignments indicated he possessed better than average supervisory capacity and it was felt he possessed average administrative ability.

On 5-14-45, SAC Hottel rated him VERY GOOD and said he had been exclusively assigned to technical surveillances and had performed very satisfactorily on this type of assignment. He exercised good judgment, had initiative, appeared to be interested in the work of the Bureau, it was felt he would make a very good Government witness and he made a very good personal appearance and had a friendly personality. His firearms ability was above average and he could be used on dangerous assignments without hesitation.

Mr. H. L. Edwards interviewed him during In-Service Training in April-May, 1945 and said he had an average satisfactory appearance, and a very good personality. He had two problems. One of them concerned the matter which motivated his transfer from Newark. This transfer was caused by a misunderstanding in a case which the Bureau was assisting the State Police in, when this Agent and another Agent issued some instructions that an automobile was not to be touched because of the possibility of disturbing latent fingerprints and the garage attendant construed these instructions to even prohibit the police from touching the car. Even though the Agent was not at fault SAC McKee felt it best to transfer him out of the office. Agent Wick wondered whether this would affect his record and he was advised that inasmuch as he was not censured, or it was not brought to his attention, that the Bureau did not consider that he was necessarily at fault. The other problem was his wife's health and the fact that he could not find living quarters. He was instructed to advise the Bureau of this latter problem. It was noted that on 5-17-45, SAC Hottel advised Mr. H. L. Edwards he (Hottel) did not know of this Agent's trouble until it was called to his attention by Mr. Edwards. SAC Hottel instructed Agent Wick to take as much time as he needed to clear up this situation.

As a result of a basic increase in pay, effective 7-1-45, his salary was increased to $4300 per annum.

On 1-10-46, he was transferred to the Crime Records Section at the Seat of Government.

On his transfer report dated 1-10-46, SAC Hottel rated him EXCELLENT and said he possessed a considerable amount of initiative, used good judgment in making decisions, had the ability to analyze and coordinate the various information coming to his attention in an accurate and logical manner and he had a friendly personality which allowed him to work in harmony with other Agents.

On 3-31-46, Mr. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and said he was an unusually hard worker, believed in getting material out regardless of the time it took, seemed to be intensely interested in the Bureau and it was felt he would advance rapidly in the work of the Crime Records Section.

As a result of a basic increase in pay, effective 7-1-46, and a promotion under the provisions of the Uniform Promotion Act, effective 8-11-46, his salary was increased to $5152.80 per annum. On 1-12-47, he was reallocated to Grade CAF 12, $5905.20 per annum.

On 12-19-46, Mr. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and said he was an unusually good contact man, really had the Bureau's interest at heart, he had had general supervision of press release matters in the section and had done an excellent job in this regard and he had supervised the Interesting Case project and in addition had prepared a number of special memoranda and articles. He handled dictation at a rapid rate of speed, was unusually diligent about his duties and frequently put in large amounts of overtime on a purely voluntary basis.

By letter dated 1-10-47, he was thanked by the Director for turning down a position which would pay a greater salary than that which he received from the Bureau. This position was with an advertising firm in Minneapolis.

On 3-31-47, Mr. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and said his dictation was entirely satisfactory, he was an exceedingly hard worker, got out an above average volume of work of a uniformly excellent character, he had made a number of speeches before civic and school groups and the response had been highly satisfactory and he had also conducted a number of special tours and on several occasions had supervised the taking of photographs around the Bureau by newspaper representatives. It was felt his work was outstanding and that he should be kept in mind for further advancement.

This agent has been in Washington since March, 1945, and has been evicted three times by houses being sold out from under him. At the present time he is looking for new quarters. He has also informed Mr. Nichols of the condition of his father-in-law who is diabetic and has been forced to have his leg amputated. The Bureau considered getting veteran's preference for this Agent, however, it was decided this could not be done and at that time Mr. Nichols advised him that if he could not find housing quarters the Bureau would transfer him wherever he wanted to go. In view of the difficulty that has arisen at his home, it was felt there was no other choice but to transfer him. On 4-15-47, letters were prepared transferring him to the St. Paul Field Division.

On 4-26-47, a letter over the Director's signature was sent to Mr. Otto Ohlund, father-in-law of Agent Wick, wishing him speedy recovery and advising him the book entitled "The Story of the FBI" was being sent to him under separate cover.

On 5-17-47 Mr. M. A. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and said he had had general supervision over the Interesting Case project and had done an outstanding job in that regard. He had had supervision over the preparation of press memoranda and had likewise done an excellent job in that regard. He had handled a number of special research jobs and writing projects and in those he had displayed considerable ingenuity and originality and had turned out a uniformly excellent product. He had given numerous speeches and the response had been uniformly favorable and it was felt that he was well qualified indeed in that regard. He was an exceedingly hard worker and got out an above average volume of work, he had demonstrated his ability to supervise others in the performance of the Bureau's work, and it was definitely felt that he was an outstanding Agent and should be kept in mind for further advancement. On the basis of his work it was believed that he had the qualities which would enable him to function satisfactorily as a Field Supervisor or an Assistant Special Agent in Charge.

On 5-19-47 he reported to the St. Paul Office.

During an inspection of the St. Paul Office in July, 1947, the Inspector (SAC Kramer) said he made a good appearance and had a mature, pleasant personality. He seemed to be well grounded in the Bureau and impressed one as substantial and interested in his job. It was thought that he would continue to develop. He was rated excellent in dictation.

In a memorandum dated 10-22-47 SAC Brantley said he had been assigned to the election fraud investigation in the Kansas City District since September, 1947, and he had applied himself while on this assignment. SAC Brantley further advised that this Agent was returning to St. Paul in order to find a place for his family to live inasmuch as his family had to vacate their present living quarters and the permanent home for which he had a lease would not be available until 12/1/47.

He attended an In-Service Training Course at the Seat of Government from February 9, to February 21, 1948. At the conclusion of his In-Service Training he received Inspector's Aide Training and on 2-25-48 the SAC was so advised.

On 2-20-48 the Director saw him and said he made a generally good appearance, seemed to be interested in his work, and rated him at least average.

On 3-31-48 SAC Rhodes rated him EXCELLENT and stated he was of good personal appearance and approach, possessed an adequate amount of initiative, resourcefulness, force and aggressiveness, dictated competently, made a good witness in court, operated capably on physical surveillances, and he adapted himself to the work of the field quickly and capably. His reports were thorough and to the point, and they showed conscientious and painstaking effort. His volume of work had met the office average, his contacts were favorable, he knew how to organize his work and get the job done, he accepted responsibility willingly and discharged it with a minimum amount of supervision, and he was capable of performing work requiring strenuous physical condition. His reports were comparatively free from error. Definitely he possessed administrative and executive ability, he had the qualities which would enable him to function satisfactorily as an ASAC.

In a memorandum to the Director dated 6-25-48, Assistant Director Connelley advised that Agent Wick assisted in the inspection of the Milwaukee Office from June 2 to June 16, 1948. He was very cooperative, willing, and desirous of learning all the details of inspection work in his first such assignment. He had a good knowledge of investigative requirements and technique, and followed these in evaluating work of the office reviewed by him. It was believed that he acquired by instruction a substantial idea of the necessities of the various situations to be covered in an inspection, in addition to those covered individually by him. He should be given further opportunity for this type of assignment, as well as an additional knowledge of the possibilities of supervision as to the activities of others in the work of the Bureau field division. His services were entirely satisfactory and above average in locating deficiencies.

As the result of a basic salary increase effective 7-11-48, his salary was increased to $6235.20 per annum in Grade CAF-12.

On 7-25-48 he received a Uniform Promotion to $6474.60 per annum in Grade CAF-12.

During an Inspection of the St. Paul Office in December, 1948, Inspector Gurnea said he presented a good appearance, had an average personality, was a good conversationalist, and conducted a very satisfactory interview. It was believed he was a satisfactory Agent.

In a memorandum to Mr. Tolson dated 12-27-48, Mr. Clegg advised that Agent Wick assisted Mr. Laughlen during the recent inspection at Chicago. He was studious, applied himself well and conscientiously, and generally produced accurate results. He was rated as Very Good.

By memorandum dated 1-12-49 his SAC recommended that he be approved by the Bureau as one of the Saturday supervisors of the office. He was a veteran Agent and was a highly competent individual. He had been approved by the Bureau as an Inspector's Aide, and his SAC considered him competent to handle the duties of a Saturday supervisor in the office. By memorandum dated 1-24-49 his SAC was granted authority to utilize his services on Saturday duties.

On 1-25-49 SAC Rhodes recommended that Agent Wick be approved by the Bureau as a relief Agent Supervisor to sit on the desk of the ASAC of the office when the ASAC took over the SAC desk. SAC Rhodes advised that the Bureau was well aware of Agent Wick's qualifications. He was a Bureau supervisor for many months before he was transferred to the St. Paul Office on 5-19-47, he had an excellent record while in the Bureau, and since he had been in St. Paul he had handled his cases in a highly competent manner. He was a hard and thorough worker and possessed an enormous amount of energy. During the past year he had been qualified by the Bureau as an Inspector's Aide and had assisted regular Bureau Inspectors in the field. He was entirely competent to handle this assignment here. By memorandum dated 2-7-49, his SAC was granted authority to utilize his services as a relief Agent Supervisor during the absence of the ASAC.

On 3-31-49 SAC Rhodes rated him EXCELLENT and stated he was of excellent personal appearance and approach, possessed an adequate amount of initiative, resourcefulness, force and aggressiveness, he dictated competently, and functioned well on dangerous assignments. Likewise, he operated capably on physical surveillances. His paper work was excellent, his reports, memoranda, letters and kindred material were well prepared and well thought out. They were thorough and to the point, and showed conscientious and painstaking effort. His volume of work had not the office average. His contacts were good, he knew how to organize and initiate his work, and organize and initiate investigations and follow them through to a logical conclusion. He accepted responsibility willingly and discharged it with a small amount of supervision. He was well grounded in Bureau rules and policies and procedure. He made an excellent witness in court and was available for special as well as general assignment. He had been qualified by the Bureau as an inspector's aide, and had handled all of this work thoroughly and creditably, without any bias or without any fear or favoritism. He was scrupulously honest. He definitely possessed administrative and executive ability, and he had the qualities which would enable him to function satisfactory as an ASAC.

On 9-6-49 SAC Rhodes recommended that the Bureau consider Agent Wick on a long-range basis for development as an administrator in the Bureau.

On 9-24-49 the St. Paul Office was changed to Minneapolis.

In a memorandum to Mr. Tolson dated 9-30-49, Mr. Nichols advised that Agent Wick was an extremely industrious individual. He had considerable ability and at the time of his transfer to the field he was just beginning to really be of value. Since Agent Wick advised by letter dated 9-22-49 that his personal situation was now clarified and he was available for transfer any place, Mr. Nichols recommended his transfer back to Mr. Jones' Office.

As the result of a basic salary increase effective 10-30-49, his salary was increased to $6600 per annum in Grade GS-12.

On 11-22-49 SAC Rhodes rated him EXCELLENT and stated his detailed comments in regard to Agent Wick were the same as they were in the 1949 Annual Efficiency Report. He was a highly competent Agent and an excellent administrator. He investigated all of his cases in a thorough and painstaking manner. Likewise, the administration of his cases was excellent. For the past year he had acted as ASAC of the office when the ASAC took over the SAC desk while the SAC was out of the city or otherwise engaged. He had discharged this assignment in a highly capable manner. He was thoroughly cognizant of Bureau policy and procedure and evinced great thoroughness in case reviews and handling administrative detail of the office that happened to be assigned to him. He was a qualified inspector's aide, a qualified public speaker, and he got along well with his associates in the office and with the public.

generally and with law enforcement officials. He was particularly adept in the use of firearms. On one occasion while engaging in outdoor firearms training in the Minneapolis Office, he shot "a possible" score in the practical pistol course. Since he had been in the office he had assisted his SAC on a number of self-inspections of the office. He had handled all of this work thoroughly and creditably, without any bias or without any fear or favoritism. His SAC considered him competent to assume the duties of an ASAC.

On 11-27-49 he was transferred to the Crime Records Section.

In a memorandum to Mr. Nichols dated 12-21-49, Mr. Jones advised that he wanted to call to Mr. Nichols attention the unusually fine attitude displayed by Agent Wick in connection with his recent transfer from the Minneapolis Office to the Seat of Government. His personal situation in so far as his wife's family cleared up only recently and he advised Mr. Nichols of this fact immediately. After he received his transfer back to the Seat of Government he sold his house and took a loss of approximately $1800.00. In addition his wife was about five months pregnant and her condition was such that she could not go up and down steps. He had a child in school and was getting along highly satisfactorily in the Minneapolis Office. Mr. Jones advised that he happened to know that Agent Wick was very happy in Minneapolis and as a personal preference ^{perhaps} would have preferred to stay there rather than to come back to the Bureau. He was really an outstanding Agent and Mr. Jones thought Mr. Nichols would like to know of the above as it indicated his high regard for the Bureau and willingness to work wherever the Bureau desired.

On 1-22-50 he received a Uniform Promotion to $6800 per annum in Grade GS-12.

He attended an In-Service Training Course at the Seat of Government from March 6, to March 17, 1950.

On 3-31-50 Mr. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and stated he presented a most favorable personal appearance, had an outstanding personality, and was capable of getting along well with all types of people. During his assignment in the Section he had handled a number of detailed research projects requiring considerable initiative and imagination. He was an exceptionally hard worker and had dogged perseverance. It should be noted that he was a qualified Inspector's Aide and had done an outstanding job in this regard while in the field. Before being assigned to Crime Records he had been approved as a Relief Supervisor in Minneapolis and on a number of occasions functioned in the absence of the ASAC. He had been used on a number of special tours and speeches and had performed most satisfactorily in this manner. It was felt that he was well qualified now to serve as an ASAC and that he had the qualities which with additional experience would enable him to function satisfactorily as an SAC in one of the smaller offices.

By memorandum dated 4-21-50 to Mr. Nichols, Mr. Jones advised that he wanted to call attention to the outstanding job being done in Crime Records at the present time by Agent Wick. He had been in the Bureau since 7-20-42, and his 1947, 1948, 1949, and 1950 Annual Efficiency Reports had been Excellent. He had had a most varied experience at the Seat of Government and in the field and was capable of handling the most complicated investigative matter. He was enjoying excellent health and was well qualified to handle assignments including raids requiring the utmost physical exertion and extreme danger. His personal situation, which was the basis for his transfer from the Seat of Government to the field in 1947, had completely cleared up and he presently was available for assignment whenever and wherever the Bureau might desire on either general or special matters. While his total supervisory experience was slightly short of three years, it was felt that his work on inspections and in other capacities more than compensated in this regard. It was recommended that he be considered now for a promotion to Grade GS-13. Should it be found that he did not meet the qualifications, it was recommended that he be reconsidered after the passage of three months. Mr. Nichols agreed.

By letter dated 4-25-50 Mr. Willdam A. Coblenz, Assistant Director, Division of Public Information, advised Mr. Nichols to accept his compliments for having men like Agent Wick in the FBI. He did Director and the Bureau great credit. Mr. Nichols noted, "I talked to him."

In a memorandum to Mr. Tolson dated 5-3-50, Mr. Nichols advised that he concurred in Mr. Jones' recommendation that Agent Wick be reallocated from Grade GS-12 to GS-13 on April 21. Action had not as yet been taken on this recommendation. He advised that he now recommended that no action be taken and that the matter be reconsidered on 7-1-50. The present recommendation was predicated upon the fact that Mr. Wick erred in connection with the spelling of a word in the preparation of the Director's speech on Monday night. Mr. Nichols advised that he must say, however, that Mr. Wick was extremely cautious. He had done good work and were it not for this incident, coupled with the fact that Mr. Nichols specifically requested that everything be double checked, he would vigorously advocate his previous recommendation.

By letter dated 5-17-50 he was commended for the splendid manner in which he handled himself relative to a situation which recently arose which might have caused embarrassment to the Bureau. It was noted he interviewed Dewey Samuel Elgin who admitted he was an escapee from the Torrance State Hospital for Insane, and Agent Wick had him turned over to the St. Elizabeth's or Gallinger Hospital in Washington, D. C., after properly determining his true status.

On 6-11-50 he was reallocated to Grade GS-13, $7600 per annum.

On 12-11-50 Mr. Jones rated him EXCELLENT and said he had continued to turn out an exceptional job in the Crime Records Section. He was an exceptionally hard worker and believed in driving on a project until it was completed. He was most interested in the Bureau and had, Jones felt, the qualities which would enable him to function satisfactorily at the present time as the Special Agent in Charge of one of the smaller offices. It was felt, however, that he should be given an opportunity to function for a time as an Assistant Special Agent in Charge and that he should be considered in this regard whenever an opening occurs.

His daily average overtime for October, 1950 was 1 hour 23 minutes, for November was 2 hours 44 minutes, for December was 3 hours 8 minutes.

By memorandum dated 2-15-51 Mr. Jones submitted his name for consideration as an Assistant Special Agent in Charge.

On 3/31/51 Mr. Jones rated him SATISFACTORY and said this Special Agent had a lot of force and drive and was able to handle a large volume of work. He had been used on a number of speaking engagements and on special tours. He had handled himself well on each of these and reflected credit upon the Bureau. He most definitely should be rated in the upper brackets of Satisfactory and should be kept in mind for future advancement. Mr. Wick was definitely SAC material and it was felt that at the earliest opportunity he should be considered for a position of ASAC.

On 7/8/51 he received a Basic Increase to $8360 per annum in Grade GS-13.

By letter dated 10/15/51 he was commended for the excellent work he performed in connection with the program on Theft of Government Property cases.

By memorandum dated 10/23/51 Mr. Nichols recommended the assignment of Agent Wick to his office. On 10/26/51 Mr. Nichols discussed with Mr. Wick in detail his new assignment in Mr. Nichols' office. Agent Wick was very appreciative of the opportunity and Mr. Nichols was sure he would be a great help.

On 10/29/51 he was transferred to Mr. Nichols' Office in the Records and Communications Division. On his transfer report dated 10/29/51 Mr. Jones rated him SATISFACTORY and said he was thoroughly familiar with the various aspects of the work in the Crime Records Section and always did an outstanding job on projects to which he was assigned. He had a great deal of initiative and was a persistent worker. He had handled a great number of special tours as well as speaking engagements. The response had been uniformly satisfactory. (29) For the last three years I have been in charge of the writing of all baseball broadcast contracts the advertising agency by which I am employed writes with radio stations and baseball clubs. This past year I have been in charge of all agency contracts for radio network time and newspaper space. My work involves the writing of about 80 baseball broadcast contracts, three to four pages in length, and hundreds of spot radio and newspaper space contracts necessary in the expenditure of several hundreds of thousands of dollars in the advertising of WHEATIES, BISQUICK, SOCONY-VACUUM OILS and LEVER BROTHERS SOAP PRODUCTS---all on a national basis.

" It is my responsibility to prepare all the Schedules and Estimates for our clients prior to the issuance of the contracts. My work requires that I handle a tremendous amount of detail, not only in connection with the work outlined herein, but also in the following through necessary in the Media Department of which I am Administrative head. It is my job to supervise its many functions. It takes constant application to the job, system and organization to keep it all ticking and keep it straight.

" Until December/ of last year, I was Assistant Manager of the Sports Department of the agency and in that capacity came in contact with radio station men all over the United States by correspondence and personal contact when "checking baseball broadcasts" and announcers, sales activity in the various baseball broadcast markets. Last year WHEATIES used 97 stations. Also last year I supervised the WHEATIES distribution campaign carried out in conjunction with dairies throughout the south---lined them up, checked their activities, reliability and honesty before offering them the plan.

" I am thoroughly familiar with the use of recordings and with Presto recording equipment to some extent. I have also done considerable announcing on General Mills sales meetings recordings.

(24c) During the 1933-1934 school year I was enrolled in the University of Minnesota Law School. Dean Frazer decided, and rightly so, that I'd make a "better something else" than a lawyer and I was dropped at the end of the school year. Whether this was due to lack of application, too much outside work at the N. P. Hospital where I worked 6 hours a day, or to just plain lack of capacity, I don't know. At any rate my grades the last two years at the "U", after staying out 1 year to earn money, were fairly good.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

Mr. Robert E. Wick
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wick:

After reviewing the results of the recent inspection of the Crime Records Division, I have approved the following ratings for the various operations: Physical Condition and Maintenance, Administrative Operations and Personnel Matters - Very Good; Specific Division Operations and Contacts - Excellent.

The space occupied by your Division was found to be generally well maintained, well arranged and secure. The minor housekeeping deficiencies detected by the Inspector should be corrected immediately. The low light level noted in four rooms occupied by your Division is not conducive to the well-being of employees or maximum efficiency. You should continue to follow the improvement of this lighting by the General Services Administration to correct the problem at the earliest possible date.

I was pleased to learn that the National Crime Information Center is receiving priority attention and that you have been able to surmount the problems inherent in the development of a new operation such as this. I hold you personally responsible to insure this project moves ahead on schedule. Successful operation of the National Crime Information Center will be a major step forward for law enforcement in the United States. You should carefully follow the suggestions of the Inspector in the implementation of this program. Make certain that space allocated to the National Crime Information Center in the new FBI building is located and arranged to the best advantage.

DUPLICATE YELLOW

I was pleased that you have continued to effectively obtain extensive favorable coverage of FBI operations in all types of news media. It is essential that you and your associates, through careful planning and imaginative approaches, insure the public continues to be fully apprized of the Bureau's responsibilities and accomplishments.

5 JAN 5 1966

It was gratifying to note that nineteen Top Ten Fugitives had been apprehended with resultant outstanding news coverage since the last inspection of your Division. Afford this program close attention to insure this favorable progress continues.

The appearance of the FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin has been further improved through the use of two-color printing, which should enhance this publication's stature in the law enforcement field. The apprehension of three fugitives as a result of articles in the Bulletin and the scheduling of an article for reprinting in The Reader's Digest attest to its value and quality.

I was pleased to learn that tours of the FBI continue to be well received and that the number of individuals taking such tours has increased. It was determined during the inspection that you are fully aware of the value of this undertaking in keeping the public aware of FBI activities. You must continue to insure that adequate arrangements have been made and are operational to handle the ever-increasing number of individuals visiting the Bureau. I shall expect you to be alert to quickly detect and correct any outdated portions of these tours.

The Inspector reported that production in the handling of outgoing correspondence had improved. While the earlier working hours established in the Correspondence Section during the last inspection have assisted in meeting deadlines, I must insist there be a more even flow of correspondence, particularly during afternoon hours. In addition, you must continually stress the need for strict adherence to Bureau policy and accuracy in preparing these communications.

The additional statistics being compiled regarding types of thefts and traffic enforcement in connection with Uniform Crime Reports are a step in the right direction. Also, the progress made in the program to follow the activities of known criminal offenders is indicative of imaginative handling.

The meeting of the short deadlines imposed in connection with the increased number of requests for name checks received from the White House indicates that you are aware of the importance of this operation and the reliance being placed on us by high Government officials. We must continue to completely fulfill our responsibilities concerning these name checks.

While your combined stenographic and typing production was above and the percentage of retyped pages below the averages for these items at the Seat of Government, the pages retyped by your stenographers had increased since the last inspection. This indicates a continuing need to stress both accuracy and production in your stenographic and typing operations.

The active participation in your suggestion program indicates interest by employees in improving Bureau operations. This is particularly important because of current economic pressures and the need for strict economy in all phases of our operations. You must remain vigorously alert to streamlining your operations.

Excluding personnel directly concerned with the National Crime Information Center, it was determined by the Inspector that your present personnel complement is adequate and not excessive. Your request for an additional stenographer and twelve additional clerks for the National Crime Information Center has been thoroughly analyzed by the Inspector and you have been advised separately of my approval for the additional stenographer and ten additional clerks. You must closely analyze your personnel needs at all times to insure your staff is held to an absolute minimum consistent with efficient operations.

The voluntary overtime performed in your Division was reported to be necessary, productive and equitably shared. Insure that it remains so. I was pleased the Inspector found that morale of employees under your supervision appeared to be very high. Continue to follow the reducing program of the overweight male clerk in your Division until his weight comes within desirable limits.

The Inspector reported that your contact program continues to be effective and that the number of contacts increased since the last inspection. Your liaison responsibilities must be completely fulfilled to properly safeguard the Bureau's interests in the area of legislation and other important matters. The public appearances handled by your Division are of great value in this important area of FBI responsibility; however, the selectivity in accepting such commitments and the planning of any travel necessary to these appearances must be such that maximum economy is achieved.

You and your Number One Man should carefully review the inspection findings. Within thirty days of the receipt of this letter advise the Inspection Division of the corrective action taken.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

INSPECTION - CRIME RECORDS DIVISION
INSPECTOR G. W. HALL
11/28 - 12/14/66

SUMMARY

Officials: Robert E. Wick, Assistant Director since 12/31/65; Cartha D. DeLoach, previously Assistant Director. Thomas E. Bishop, Number One Man since 1/2/66; Robert E. Wick previously Number One Man. Last inspection: 12/6-17/65.

Physical Condition and Maintenance - Very Good (Last Inspection - Very Good). Division continues to occupy space in Justice and Old Post Office (OPO) Buildings. Space well maintained and secure. Minor housekeeping deficiencies ordered corrected. Light level too low in four rooms. Division to follow for improvement by General Services Administration. Space newly acquired in OPO for National Crime Information Center (NCIC) not desirable but only space available in area. Instructions issued Division to insure space allocated NCIC in new FBI Building located and arranged to best advantage. No defects in one Bureau car assigned. Three Agents to secure new credential photographs. Instructed hold equipment requests to absolute minimum.

Specific Division Operations - Excellent (Last Inspection - Excellent). Division continues to obtain extensive favorable coverage of FBI operations in all types of news media. National press releases graphically portray FBI handling of major cases. 19 Top Ten Fugitives apprehended since last inspection with resultant outstanding news coverage. Weekly radio programs on ABC and local Washington stations continue effective. Numerous articles and statements researched for national publications. Pamphlet stressing absolute necessity for law and order in preparation. Television series "The FBI" continues well received and awarded Freedom Foundation medal. New two-color printing of FBI Law Enforcement Bulletin improves appearance; circulation now 57,000 (all-time high); 3 fugitives arrested as result of articles in 1966 issues; one article to be reprinted in "The Readers Digest." Distribution of reprints of Director's monthly message has increased by 10,000 copies. FBI exhibits displayed at 40 locations since last inspection and new exhibits in preparation. Three new training films being produced. Record 647,809 visitors, including many nationally known figures, toured FBI since last inspection. Tours monitored during inspection indicate excellent presentation. Correspondence work load averaged 303 items daily (up from 294 last inspection). Accuracy improved to 99.96%. NCIC scheduled to become operational in January, 1967, with 15 law enforcement agencies and Denver Office having lines to computer. Division affording priority attention - problems arising have been aggressively pursued and closely followed. Suggestions furnished for assistance in implementation of program. Successful operation of NCIC will enhance Bureau's position in law enforcement. Additional breakdowns of types of thefts and traffic enforcement statistics being included in Uniform Crime Reports. Follow up on Known Offenders Program produced 2-year follow up on 7,000 offenders published in Uniform Crime Reports which resulted in considerable interest and favorable comment. Criminal histories of 158,000 individuals now in computer storage for analysis under this program. White House name check requests totalled over 10,000 first 11 months 1966 (4,700 same period 1965). Most requests involve short deadlines which are being met.

Administrative Operations - Very Good (Last Inspection - Very Good). Administrative and supervisory assignments equitably shared. Summary Memo random Unit created since last inspection due to increase in White House name check requests. 8:00 AM to 4:30 PM shift established last inspection to improve flow of work in correspondence units justified and continued. While deadlines are generally being met and more mail is being prepared earlier despite all-time high work load, Division instructed to stress more even flow of mail, particularly in afternoon hours. Minor errors in handling of Number One Registers ordered corrected. Combined stenographic and typing production above Seat of Government average and last inspection. Stenographic retypes up, typist retypes down from last inspection, both below Seat of Government averages. Odd-hour shifts justified. Two Division forms ordered corrected. 63 suggestions submitted since last inspection, 32 adopted.

Personnel Matters - Very Good (Last Inspection - Very Good). Personnel complement 12/9/66 (42 Agents, 167 clerical) adequate, not excessive for current work. Division temporarily operating one over Agent quota due special assignment Inspector E. C. Kemper (previously approved) - to reduce to 41 Agents upon his return. Division requested additional stenographer and 12 additional clerks for new NCIC. Inspector found stenographer and 10 clerks necessary (handled separately). On-the-job training effective. No abuse of sick leave. Voluntary overtime found necessary, productive and equitably shared. No Agents overweight, unavailable, on probation or on limited duty. One male clerk overweight - reducing, retention justified. Morale appears high.

Contacts - Excellent (Last Inspection - Excellent). Daily, effective contacts continue to be maintained with influential news media representatives, members of Congress, White House, veteran's groups, fraternal organizations and others. Division has 1333 current contacts, up 74 from last inspection. Close news media liaison insures appropriate coverage of FBI material. Liaison maintained with key Congressional contacts regarding legislation affecting Bureau operations. Confidential psychological warfare campaign against criminal and subversive elements using friendly news sources continues to provide valuable weapon to thwart unscrupulous schemes by such elements. Division handles numerous speeches before top-level groups. Strict economy in selection of appearances and travel ordered. Field public appearance program (supervised by Division) shows substantial increase since last inspection (11,626 appearances).

As you know, Mr. Wick had dental work performed on him on Thursday, 6/8/67. He returned to work after the work was completed, but became ill and it was necessary for him to go home. He had an upset stomach and was experiencing considerable pain in his jaw. He was at the office all day on Friday, 6/9/67 but has been unable to return to duty since that time.

The pain continued over the weekend and on Monday, 6/12/67, he found that both sides of his face had swollen to a considerable degree with both eyes almost being swollen shut. He was also experiencing excruciating pain in the facial area. He went to his dentist on 6/12/67 but got no relief. As a result, on 6/13/67 it was necessary for him to go to an oral surgeon, who did surgery on his jaw and determined that the difficulty was caused by an infection of unknown origin. The surgeon located the infection and installed a drain. Mr. Wick was permitted to return to his home on the afternoon of 6/13/67 and is presently confined to his bed at home. His doctor anticipates that he will not be able to return to work until sometime next week.

☐ Annuity without Survivor Benefit

☐ Reduced Annuity with Benefit to Person having an Insurable Interest

☐ Survivor Annuity (55% of all or whatever portion of your earned annuity you specify) plus annuity for each eligible child.

SEPARATION FROM ROLLS

It is satisfactory to cease active duty on 7-28-67, and the annuity will commence 8-17-67

☐ immediately following the cease-active-duty date.

☒ immediately following the expiration of current accrued annual leave on 8-16-67 earned through 8-12-67

Item 4 under B, Date of Final Separation, on the retirement application, should show separation date from the Bureau to be at close of business _____, and ☐ should be changed accordingly ☐ provided no annual leave is used by you subsequent to _____.

☐ If retirement is for disability, separation takes effect after the approval of CSC is received by the Bureau or after the expiration of accrued sick leave, whichever occurs later. Under Internal Revenue Service regulations, some sick pay and disability income is not taxable; thus, you may be able to exclude from Federal income tax liability all or a part of the payments you receive for sick leave used and for annuity received as a disability annuitant. Any such exemption would terminate when you reach normal retirement age. Questions you may have as an annuitant regarding your income tax liability or privileges can be answered by the Internal Revenue Service.

☒ You will receive a lump-sum payment for your accumulated annual leave in the approximate amount of $ 6775

- * Should you desire to work through 7-31-67, you will complete another month of service. This will increase the above monthly computations by about $6. Your decision should be shown by indicating under Item B, 4 the date of 8-16-67 or 8-19-67.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' GROUP LIFE INSURANCE ACT

- ☐ Records show you executed Standard Form 53, "Waiver of Life Insurance Coverage."
- ☒ Your coverage is in the amount of ~~$20,000~~ ———. You may continue this group insurance coverage at no premium cost following retirement or convert the insurance to an individual life insurance policy without medical examination. If converted, the double indemnity and dismemberment protection stops, and you will pay the usual premium charged by the company for a person of your age and class of risk. If you elect to keep the group insurance, your protection in the above amount continues until you are age 65. At that time this amount begins to reduce at the rate of 2% per month until you are about 68 years and 2 months of age. If you are now 65 or over, the same reduction process occurs, the maximum reduction being reached in three years and two months. Coverage in the reduced amount (25% of face value) continues at no cost as long as you remain a retired annuitant. If you wish to convert the group life coverage, the Bureau should be advised immediately. Otherwise, the original of Standard Form 56, Agency Certification of Insurance Status, will be forwarded to CSC and a copy will be forwarded to you by the Bureau at a later date.

- Note: The life insurance you have under this plan will continue in force for 6 months following your last semi-annual premium payment. If you desire to continue the protection beyond this time, you may do so without a physical examination. You may elect to continue up to age 70 at group rates a specific amount of your SAMBA Life Insurance. If you presently carry $3,000 of life insurance with SAMBA, you may continue $1,000 after you retire at a cost of $2.25 semiannually. If you presently carry $7,000 to $11,000, you may continue $3,000 at a cost of $11.25 semiannually. If you presently carry $11,000 or over, you may continue $6,000 at a cost of $27.45 semiannually. The life insurance that cannot be continued with SAMBA can be converted to a regular policy with Prudential. At age 70 you may convert the amount of life insurance carried with SAMBA to a regular policy with Prudential.
- Your desire in respect to your SAMBA life insurance at retirement should be communicated in writing to SAMBA, 1720 Massachusetts Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. 20036. If you have Dependents Group Life Insurance, this will continue until the next semiannual premium is due (1-10 or 7-10), with a 31-day grace period. You may convert the insurance on your spouse to an individual policy with The Prudential Insurance Company of America without a medical examination. The premium will be the same as if your spouse applied for an individual policy at that time. You may make the necessary conversion arrangements through the nearest Prudential Office.

Enrollment of an employee who dies while he is enrolled "for self and family" continues for his family if at least one family member is entitled to an annuity as the survivor. If the survivor annuitant is the only eligible family member, the retirement system will automatically change the enrollment to "self."

The original of Standard Form 2810, "Notice of Change in Enrollment Status," will be forwarded to you by the Bureau at a later date.

If you are a member of SATI, after your retirement you may continue but not increase coverage up to a maximum of $25,000 at the rate of $2.25 per thousand. If you have coverage on your wife and children, it will continue only until the next premium is due, and cannot be renewed. Further information on SATI can be secured by writing Wright and Co., 1001 Connecticut Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D. C. 20036.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Robert E. Wick

This is the most difficult letter I have ever written. I am requesting that you agree to my retirement, for financial reasons, from the FBI, with active duty to cease at the close of business Friday, July 28, 1967. I believe that leave accumulated this year will retain me on the rolls for another three weeks or so.

This request is doubly difficult since only last Thursday you gave me my 25-year key.

For some months my wife and I have worried about funds to see our son [redacted] now interning in Medicine, through this year and then a one-year residency in Medicine, funds to get our son [redacted] through his two remaining years of Law School at the same time [redacted] is finishing Medicine and, after next year, funds to get our daughter [redacted] through her first year in college. Instead of just two children in college, for that one year, we will have three.

Some time ago I was offered a position with Pan American World Airways which would considerably increase my income. My brother [redacted] flew in from Minneapolis this past week end so that we could talk this whole financial matter over carefully. He advised me to accept employment in private industry, where he is employed, as a means of increasing my income. I therefore will tell Pan Am in New York today I have asked for retirement and will work for them. Details will have to be worked out.

That is the situation. Unless my wife and I go far into debt, we cannot get the children through college, Medical and Law School on my current income.

There are no men in this world for whom I have more respect, admiration and affection than you and Mr. Tolson. You have been wonderful to me for 25 years. Now this situation arises over which none of us has control -- I cannot earn more than Grade 18 in government service.

My heart, but not my daily hand, will always be at the FBI which you have personally fashioned so well. Your great contributions to this country and your fellow men for over 50 years will never be forgotten. I feel proud in having been associated with the FBI for half those years.

Should you or Mr. Tolson feel I can be of help at any time, please call upon me. I will deliver.

It is with a feeling of sadness I end this letter and make this request to leave the FBI. I had thought it would never happen. There is no other way.

Sincerely,

Assistant Director Wick originally advised he would be ceasing active duty close of business Friday, 7-28-67. However, upon determining that by remaining on active duty through the end of the month and thereby completing one additional full month of service, his annuity would be increased by $6.00 a month, Wick advised that he would prefer to remain on duty through the close of business Monday, 7-31-67.

Attached for approval is letter to Thomas E. Bishop designating him Inspector in Charge of Crime Records Division with no change in grade or salary effective immediately.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYING AGENCY

COMPLETION OF CERTIFICATION

1. This Certification must be completed in triplicate whenever an employee's insurance terminates for:
 - a. Death.
 - b. Retirement on an immediate annuity with 12 or more years' creditable service, of which at least 5 years are civilian service, or on account of disability. (An immediate annuity is one which begins to accrue not later than 1 month after the date the insurance would normally cease.) In a disability retirement case, do not complete S.F. 56 until a finding of disability has been officially made and the employee's separation is in order.
 - c. Completion of 12 months in a non-pay status or separation, and the employee is receiving benefits under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act.
 - d. Any other reason, if the employee desires to convert his group life insurance, except under the following circumstances:
 - (1) Employee waived on S.F. 53;
 - (2) If it is known that, within 3 calendar days after the date the insurance terminated, the employee will return to Government service in the same or another position in which he will be eligible to reacquire Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance;
 - (3) More than 75 days have elapsed from the date insurance terminated unless specific request is made therefor by the Civil Service Commission or the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
2. If insurance terminated on account of death, indicate whether the employee had filed an Application for Retirement (S.F. 2801) with the Civil Service Commission.
3. In item 7, give date of Notice of Conversion Privilege (S.F. 55), except that if this form (S.F. 56) is issued in lieu of S.F. 55, give current date. In case of death, leave this item blank.

DISPOSITION OF CERTIFICATION

1. Death of employee—
 - a. Send duplicate copy of Certification immediately to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
 - b. Keep the original (preferably in the Official Personnel Folder or its equivalent) for attachment to a claim for death benefits (Form FE-6) when received.
 - c. If no claim is received, send the original Certification, upon request, to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
 - d. If the deceased employee has a current designation of beneficiary on file, the designation (S.F. 54) must be attached to the original Certification when it is sent to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance.
2. Retirement of employee—
 - a. If the employee is applying for an immediate annuity (with 12 or more years' creditable service, of which at least 5 years are civilian service or for disability), attach the original Certification and current designation of beneficiary, (S.F. 54), if any, to the application for retirement and give duplicate copy of Certification to the employee. [NOTE: In a disability retirement case where the application has already been sent to the Civil Service Commission, attach the original S.F. 56 (and S.F. 54, if any,) to the "FINAL" Individual Retirement Record (S.F. 2806).]
 - b. If the employee prefers to convert his group insurance to an individual policy, give him the original and duplicate copy of the Certification. Retain S.F. 54, if any.
3. Employee in receipt of compensation benefits—
 - a. If the employee is receiving benefits under the FEDERAL EMPLOYEES' COMPENSATION ACT on account of a job incurred disease or injury to himself, have him complete appropriate box on reverse side of the original Certification. Send original Certification and current designation of beneficiary (S.F. 54), if any, to the U. S. CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, BUREAU OF RETIREMENT AND INSURANCE, WASHINGTON, D. C. 20415, and give duplicate copy of Certification to the employee.
 - b. If the employee prefers to convert his group insurance to an individual policy, give him the original and duplicate copy of the Certification. Retain S.F. 54, if any.
4. All other cases—

Upon request, give the employee the original and duplicate copy of the Certification or mail them to him.
5. In all cases—

Retain file copy of the Certification in the employee's Official Personnel Folder or its equivalent.

PROMPT CERTIFICATION REQUIRED

The time in which an employee may convert his group life insurance to an individual policy is limited. This Certification must be completed and delivered or mailed to him promptly.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It was so kind of you to send me birthday greetings today. My day is complete.

For the past two months, since leaving the Bureau, I have attempted, through travel to Pan American World Airways' installations here and abroad, to get a "feel" of the organization and have enjoyed it immensely. My badge and the beautiful cuff links you gave me have been with me all the way.

Again, thank you for the many acts of kindness and your understanding. Please give my very best to Mr. Tolson and Miss Gandy.

May you continue to enjoy the best of health.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Last Thursday evening I attended my first meeting of the Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI at the Rayburn Building on Capitol Hill.

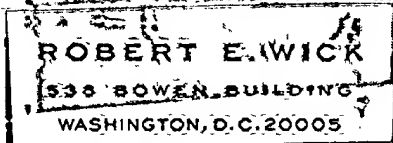

Mr. DeLoach was the featured speaker. I felt proud of the manner in which he spoke and the fine things he said about you. He was very well received by more than 125 or 130 men in attendance.

Another highlight of the evening was the talk by Jim Rowley of Secret Service. He is a genuine, honest, fine supporter of you and the FBI. To make this short, he drove home the point that neither he nor any single man in the audience would be where he is today if it were not for J. Edgar Hoover. Everyone agreed.

I thought you would want to know this.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The attached copy of a news clipping from The Washington Post for Sunday, February 23, 1969, captioned "244 Pass Bar Exam in Virginia" reflects that our Number Two Son, who is in his last year of law at William and Mary in Williamsburg, passed the Virginia Bar.

I bring this to your attention simply to call your attention again to how very grateful my wife, [redacted] and I are to you and Mr. Tolson. Our oldest son, [redacted] has finished his internship in medicine and is now a doctor with the 93rd Evacuation Hospital at Long Binh, some 16 miles north of Saigon with the U. S. Army. He is a Captain and will be there for the remainder of this year at least.

Had it not been for your understanding and great help to me while in the Bureau, the raising of two boys, now successfully in their profession, and a daughter, [redacted] now at the University of Michigan, would not have been possible.

Boys' and Girls' Basketball Teams Dinner Guests Last Night

Bridgeton Kiwanians carried out their traditional practice of banqueting both the boys and girls basketball squads of the Bridgeton High School, last night, at the club's weekly dinner meeting at the Cumberland Hotel. There were ten members of the boys' squad and eleven of the girls' team, along with physical director and Coach Ray Welsh, Coach Winona Schumacher, her assistant Marian Eklund, junior varsity coach Bert Schmickle, C. Preston Sellers, Rex Bowen and Julia Zinzerella, all closely connected with High School athletics, baseball, football and basketball, intramural and inter-scholastic.

Girl team members present were Marcia Johnson, Livia Ciccoli, Helen Sparks, Helen Kostok, Mary Calabrese, Margery Garton, Faith Emerson, Kate Kuwahara, Grace Hill, Judy Roda and Milda Brooks, and boy team members were Bud Wilson, Jerome Cotler, Glendon Smalley, Art Louis, Dom Pino, Harry Chappius, George Murasige, Bob White, Lawrence Harris and Bill Russell. Each received individual introductions by their coaches. The group was given a cordial welcome by Ed Jaggard as spokesman for the club, and pledged Kiwanis unremitting support of High School athletics.

Helen Kostok for the girls and Jerome Cotler for the boys carried off gifts of the evening, and guest Rex Bowen carried off the War Stamps. Other guests were Secretary Johnson's and George Haney's daughters, Barbara Johnson and Viola Haney, Kiwanian David C. Appelgate, of Cape May, and W. A. Kenney, guest of Gus Wilson.

President Russell Wilson officiated at the meeting, and in the song-fest that was led by Herb Weber and Pete Maxwell, the High School guests gave a lot of punch to "Put That Pistol Down." Lowell C. Ayars was at the piano. Birthday greetings in song were extended to Kiwanian Mike Casarow and the club acknowledged the invitation of Physical Director Welsh to attend the baseball clinic here April 3.

FBI Agent Spoke

Vice president and program chairman George Haney introduced Robert E. Wick, special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who delivered the address of the evening, his subject being "FBI Personnel." Mr. Wick gave a brief history of the department and the development of an efficiency which makes it one of the most important and vital agencies of government.

He informed his hearers, especially the youths of the assembly, of the requirements for admission to the service and the exhaustive preparation for duty that is required of every one of the personnel. He challenged the young people to high scholastic ratings and moral rectitude, in case their inclinations were toward governmental service, and for their battle with life and

Dear Mr. Wick:

The talk which you delivered to our guests and club members last evening was certainly enjoyed.

It was well arranged and delivered in a manner which showed you know how to "sell" your audiences on the fine training and personnel selection of your Bureau.

Your story was well reported in our local paper, The Bridgeton Evening News, so I am sending you a clipping of the general report of our meeting.

Our club appreciates very much the friendly and helpful manner of you and Mr. McKee for the part you had in our program.

This writer also feels you left some fruitful ideas and suggestions with the boys and girls, these thoughts may be worth while at some later date, in the matter of employment or training for some of the duties described.

Once again, accept our thanks and best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

George E. Hiney
Vice President.

Dear Mr. McKee:

Our club is very appreciative of your cooperation in connection with the appearance of Mr. Robert E. Wick at our meeting last evening.

Mr. Wick made a splendid talk which was delivered in an interesting, informative and well arranged manner. He is quite logical in presenting the story concerning training of your agents.

All our members, guests and the Bridgeton High School boys and girls of the basketball teams were quite absorbed by this program.

I am enclosing a newspaper clipping of the meeting so that you may know, at least to some extent, how successful you and Mr. Wick helped make our meeting.

Will you please deliver the enclosed letter to Mr. Wick when he reports or confers again with you.

While on the Hill the other day I took the occasion to call at the office of a certain South Dakota Senator. He, of course, was not in but I am confident he knows by now precisely how utterly contemptible, false and downright dirty his attack on you is regarded by those who had the privilege of working with you.

Keep at it and don't let that jackass worry you.

Mr. Mintz ☒
Mrs. Neenan ☒

My memo of 2/7/73, which is attached, advised of contact by the Staff Director, Cornelius R. Anderson, Investigative Staff, House Appropriations Committee, and Assistant Attorney General McKeivitt regarding request of HAC for information relative to the results of the FBI investigation of the Indian Affairs matter. Mr. Anderson telephoned late yesterday afternoon to advise that he had touched base with Congresswoman Julia B. Hansen, Chairman of the Interior Subcommittee of HAC. Later the same day, there had been some discussion with Chairman Mahon, as a result of which it had been decided that the letter from Chairman Mahon to the Attorney General would simply ask to be advised of legal action taken to date by the Federal Government in the Indian Affairs matter. Further, it had been decided that the Investigative Staff would not be contacting members of dissent groups. In discussions with Congresswoman Hansen, the point was specifically covered with her that the Investigative Staff would not be interviewing [redacted] and she agreed with this procedure.

Mr. Anderson mentioned that SA [redacted] who is on loan to the Investigative Staff, had received a telephone call from Bob Wick, former Assistant Director of the FBI and now with Pan American Airlines. According to Anderson, Wick told [redacted] that he considers [redacted] to be "an honorable guy" and thought it was an injustice to arrest [redacted]. Wick thought it would have been better to have called [redacted] according to Wick, [redacted] had been cooperative with the FBI in the past. Wick further commented that he thought [redacted] would be interested in talking with the FBI as no one seems to believe his story.

RECOMMENDATION:

None. Submitted for information at this time. Mr. Anderson will keep in touch with us regarding this matter.

Upon my return to town I found your letter of July 12 with its suggestion that we get together.

This Papeete tragedy, airline problems on the Hill, and marriage of my daughter this Saturday, have kept me very busy. Suppose I give Mrs. [redacted] a call sometime next week and perhaps they could set aside a few minutes for us to talk. I'm at your beck and call.

Dear Clarence:

The comments made to me by that elite group of news folks who sat at your knee the other evening would please you very much. To the man and woman, you won them over by your sincerity, forthrightness and directness. The participation of Bill and Bob in the discussions likewise added immense weight to what you emphasized and what the media can expect from you henceforth. Congratulations on a job well done. I have known these men for a long time and know they respect and admire you.

Thank you so much for your letter of congratulations on my new job which promises to be a tremendous undertaking and yet most challenging.

Another thing you should know is that I attended the International Association of Airline Security Officers Conference in Denver, October 2 through 4. The noon luncheon, October 4, was addressed by Louis A. Giovanetti, SAC Denver, whom I have known for some time. He did a beautiful job assuring security officers from all over the world, from every airline, that the only way to reenforce and win back some of law enforcement credibility is for each officer to conduct himself in the proper manner at all times. He was most commendatory of you and his address was very well received. He is an excellent speaker and you are well represented by him.

I will be in touch with John Malone shortly and as Bob Franck has already done, perhaps he can give me the name of a known real estate man to rent us an apartment.

Dear Clarence:

The television program is well named -- "Washington Straight Talk." Last evening between 8:30 and 9 on Channel 31 here in the "big apple" I had the great pleasure of watching you beautifully and cogently field every query put to you. I do not know the WETA man who interviewed you (Jim Lehrer) but I thought he did a good job.

Let me tell you very frankly, Clarence, that after so much hog wash on our TV programs, it was most refreshing to know that the American people are getting the true facts and that you are in there constantly pitching. Particularly, I think the keystone of your stewardship over the program was the punch line concerning how you wish to be remembered: "I play it the way it should be played." Who ever thought that line up should get a raise but I rather suspect you adlibbed it. Keep up the good work.

TO : Mr. Cleveland

DATE: 12/20/73

FROM : K. M. Raupach

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

RESIDENT AGENT
BRISTOL, VIRGINIA,
RICHMOND DIVISION
PERSONNEL MATTER

Wick, Robert E.

At 10:13 p.m., 12/20/73, SAC Richard D. Rogge, Richmond Division, telephonically contacted the Bureau and advised that SA [REDACTED] of the Bristol Resident Agency had just telephonically contacted him.

SAC Rogge advised that because of investigative delinquencies, SA [REDACTED] as of the close of business 12/20/73, had been suspended, placed on probation, censured and transferred to headquarters city (Richmond). Rogge advised that at the time [REDACTED] called him, [REDACTED] stated he wanted to put his SAC on notice that earlier today Mrs. [REDACTED] had been talking with former Assistant Director Robert E. Wick, now an executive with Pan American Airways, and Mrs. [REDACTED] had advised Mr. Wick of what had happened to [REDACTED]. Wick reportedly advised Mrs. [REDACTED] to have her husband, without delay, proceed to the Bureau in his personally owned automobile and "camp" on the Director's doorstep until he could discuss this matter in person. Wick also reportedly told Mrs. [REDACTED] to have her husband inform his SAC of what action he planned to take. According to Rogge, [REDACTED] endeavored to obtain SAC's advice and Rogge advised him that he was a mature, experienced Agent and he would have to be guided by his own desire. Rogge stated he reminded [REDACTED] that the Director had already ruled in this matter after an in-depth review and it was possible the Director might take offense at any such action on his part. [REDACTED] thanked Rogge for his advice and did not indicate whether he planned to proceed to the Bureau on Friday, 12/21/73, as advised by Mr. Wick.

Re: [redacted]

Rogge stated the purpose of his call was to alert the Bureau to the possibility that [redacted] may endeavor to contact the Director or one of his subordinates in connection with this matter.

In conclusion, Rogge stated it was his understanding [redacted] apparently was a neighbor of the Wick's in the past years and that the families have a close relationship. It is also possible that Mr. Wick may have been instrumental in recruiting [redacted] as a Special Agent. Rogge stated that he would keep the Bureau advised of any further pertinent information.

Dear Bob:

Please pardon my tardiness in responding to your recent letter, but I have been so busy I have been unable to answer some of my letters despite the fact I did want to do so so badly.

I appreciated your comments about the dinner you hosted and have already had some feedback which has indicated we are getting along a great deal better with members of the media. Today I visited with the entire Editorial Staff of the Washington Post, and I feel we have a good understanding between us. As to whether or not this will be a lasting thing is yet to be seen, but I have a feeling it probably will be.

I do hope that while you are assigned to New York, you do not forget us here and that on any available occasion when you are in town, you let me know so I can return your hospitality by having you for lunch here or a place of your choosing. I know of no one with whom I would be happier to be with and to talk over mutual problems.

I want to take this occasion to wish you and your family a most happy Holiday Season.

Sincerely,

MAN IN THE NEWS: CLARENCE KELLEY THE FBI'S NEW FACE

By JERRY TALLMER

WASHINGTON.

THE HEAD OF J. Edgar Hoover, in bronze, broods heavily over the vast antechamber to the Director's office, but inside that office the Director is another man entirely. His ill-starred interim predecessor L. Patrick Gray 3d never having been confirmed by the Senate, Clarence Marion Kelley is officially the second person in history to head the FBI. More than J. Edgar Hoover ever did, he looks the part, all 6 feet and 215 pounds of him.

Kelley knew he was walking into a bramble bush when he took over the job last July; knew that Gray had made a botch of it, that the White House had diddled the FBI as never would have been dared in J. Edgar's day, that morale in the bureau was murderous enough to help break open the Watergate case with an unprecedented torrent of leaks, and that he would now have to try to put all this back together again.

But he could not have foreseen what further demands on his sense and sensitivities lay ahead with the kidnapping of Patricia Hearst seven months later. On the one hand there would soon be Attorney General William Saxbe, Kelley's immediate boss, blurring that if federal agents knew where the girl was, they should "go get her"—at whatever cost, presumably, to the girl herself, and her family. On the other there was Randolph A. Hearst terming Saxbe's statement "damn near irresponsible."

Well, the FBI has yet to bust in and shoot up any even presumed place of Patty's imprisonment, and for all those long days Kelley would cautiously keep his peace—until this week, when Saxbe felt impelled, after the astounding robbery at the Hibernia Bank in San Francisco, to dub Miss Hearst a "common criminal." Kelley's reply, Thursday in Atlanta, en route to his native Kansas City:

"We will be guided by the facts and not by an opinion. . . . I operate under and I am guided by the facts. We [of the FBI] are proceeding under the hypothesis that she is a material witness rather than a subject, that she could have been duped by this group . . . the victim of pressure or coercion."

Reached yesterday by phone in Kansas City—or, rather, returning a phone call, which one could never imagine J. Edgar Hoover doing—Kelley said of Patricia's presence in the bank: "God almighty, isn't that a twist? As you say your prayers, give us a little bit of a prayer." He had no further comment, on Saxbe's remarks, except for this: "Calling her a common criminal—Isn't that something?"

Shortly before these latest events Kelley sat at his desk in Washington, formidably square of jaw and with a precisely squared-off handkerchief peeping from his pocket. Before him on the desk lay a plate of brownies covered with wax paper. "I've got a sweet tooth," said the Director. "One of the girls in the office made them."

What does he think about the course Randolph Hearst chose to follow?

Kelley clasped his hands together and thought a moment. "I tell you, to determine whether a father did the right thing, motivated by love for his daughter . . . I'm not going to try to second-guess him, and I haven't second-guessed him."

Mr. Kelley, you're a father. What if it had been—what if it were—your daughter?

"I thought you were going to ask that. If it were my daughter I would demand direct evidence of intentions to release before granting anything."

Kelley sees a large part of his new responsibilities as "in the area of explaining, understanding, communicating," with which intent he lately and bravely took himself into a lions' den of Harvard professors and students for an exchange of thoughts.

According to reports, they were fairly impressed to find him a human being—"Compared to Hoover he looks great," said one among them afterward—but they were dismayed to find an FBI director in 1974 still talking about the violence of the "so-called New Left" as the greatest danger to American internal security.

At his desk Kelley pondered that one too. "Are you including terrorists?" he said at length. "I do. Okay, maybe I should say that the New Left dwindled in the late 1960s and early '70s and that this is a terrorist era rather than New Left. At the present point the New Left, as we agree, is not dealing in violence. Maybe I should have said New Terrorist."

The Harvard and had been particularly upset about the introduction of agents-provocateurs into FBI operations.

"We don't do that."

But, sir, the FBI does, or has. Take the Philip Berrigan case, the Vietnam Veterans Against the War...

"Do you mean FBI agents or FBI informants?" Kelley said, coming down hard on a perhaps fine point. "All right, as far as informants, this—their use as agents-provocateurs—we do not condone. We do not sponsor nor do we condone, nor do we allow this. If we know about it. We do pay our informants, but we feel strongly we should control them."

Do you, in the terminology of the day, work up a psychiatric profile of your informant?

No. But we check him and keep tabs on him.

What if he turns out to be a bug?

"It might be that such a propensity escapes us for a while. When we find out he's dangerous we'd terminate him, and have on many occasions. When they tell us what to do rather than we tell him what to do, we'd better stop. Still," said the Director of the FBI, "this is one of the stronger techniques we have, the use of informants. There's nothing better than having someone come and tell you."

Next question: wiretapping.

Again, if you take it as a closely controlled investigating technique it can be done with justice and without invasion of privileges. Lots of Americans, sir, don't like the idea of being listened in on without advance warning. Even President Nixon said so. "That's right." But you still think it's okay to do it? "I do, given suitable control and a proper balance." Who determines what's proper balance? "It's legislative as well as administrative; in the last analysis, probably legislative." How about the courts? "Of course—in determining the interpretation of it."

Clarence Kelley is no stranger to the FBI. He served with it for 21 years before retiring in 1961 to take over as Chief of Police in Kansas City. Nobody in Kansas City or Washington knows anything about his politics or whether he has any. Which puts his appointment as FBI Director in refreshing contrast with that of Pat Gray. "You said that, I didn't," Kelley grunted, stonefaced but volunteering no rebuttal.

He was born Oct. 24, 1911, son and only child of Clarence Bond Kelley, electrical engineer for Kansas City Power and Light, and Minnie Brown Kelley, "mother and housewife, first, last, and always." Kelley remembers his father—both parents are dead—as "a good guy, very understanding fella, also a very strong-willed person, chairman of the board for 14 years of the Fairmont Christian Church."

He went to Northeast High School in Kansas City, then to the University of Kansas at Lawrence, 40 miles away, for a B.A. in 1936 and a law degree in 1940. It was an inspirational talk by an FBI agent at the latter graduation ceremonies which sparked Kelley to apply to that service, where his career dates from Oct. 7, 1940.

After a World War II interlude in the Navy, Kelley methodically climbed the ranks of the FBI in a wide variety of posts—Des Moines, Washington, Kansas City, Houston, Seattle, San Francisco, Birmingham—until he was appointed agent-in-charge for Memphis a year before his retirement. "I am not cosmopolitan," he has said, "but I've been around."

He retired because he had put in his time, and because he and his wife wanted to return home—for good, as they thought. "I first met her, Ruby Pickett, as a neighborhood girl. She lived a block and a half away from me. Her parents were Ella and Elmer C. Pickett, Elmer Cassius," said Kelley with a bit of a laugh. "You know, I wouldn't tell you that if he were alive. He was baking superintendent of the National Biscuit Co. in Kansas City."

Clarence and Ruby Kelley are the parents of Mary Ruth (Mrs. E. R.) Dobbins, whose husband works for the Belsaw Machinery Co., Kansas City manufacturers of hobby equipment, and who with him has given the Kelleys their grandchildren Kent, 5, and Kelley, 4—Kelley Dobbins, that is—and of Kent Clarence Kelley, "aged 26, unmarried, living in our home in Kansas City and an accountant with the Kansas City Life Insurance Co."

That home is a two-story English Colonial in what is called the Country Club district of Kansas City. Clarence Kelley, like his father before him, is an elder of the Country Club Christian Church, an affiliate of the Disciples of Christ. Their residence for the job in Washington is a condominium apartment in Rockville, Md. Kelley says his only hobby is "spectator sports," especially football. "I had season tickets to six of the Chiefs' games and I was unable to go except to one of them." It might be noted that in his youth Kelley was himself called "Chief" because he looked like the Indian on the nickel and the school notebooks.

When he moved in as KC Police Chief he took over a corrupt department and, without fear or favor, sometimes telling politicians to go to hell, straightened it out. In his 12 years there he got the force increased from 800 to 1300 men, modernized the methodology, and in the most recent figures reduced the city's crime rate since 1969 by 24 per cent.

His innovations—some of them disputed by libertarians as potential invasions of privacy—included "Sky Alert," a 24-hour helicopter police patrol, "Metro Squad," an investigative team drawn from normally competing municipal forces, "Operation Barrier" to cut off fugitives at municipal or state lines, and installation of computers that feed instant information on criminal records and stolen cars to patrolmen on the beat.

Kelley's record has been less impressive to some militant members of Kansas City's black community. Six deaths resulted there when his police put down the 1968 riots that followed the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. There are, even today, only 99 blacks on the Kansas City police force—7.5 per cent—just as there are to this writing only 90 blacks (and 91 Spanish-surnamed agents, 13 American Indians, 19 Asian-Americans) in the 8500-man FBI.

When Kelley was named for the FBI job Bruce R. Watkins, president of Freedom Inc., a civil-rights organization of Kansas City's black elected officials, said Kelley had added fuel to the riots, "instead of quenching them" and that the police chief was "an expert cover-up artist." At the subsequent confirmation hearings in Washington, Watkins called Kelley "a bureaucratic machine insensitive to human compassion."

Kelley is all too well aware of these charges.

"Well, my position insofar as control of a riot," he said, "is you immediately take aggressive action to stop violence. Though with fair treatment. In the process unfortunately we had some deaths, though our mission was not to slay."

The Director was asked whether he had ever read "Rebellion in Newark," Tom Hayden's book about the factors of police brutality and police fear and confusion in that city's 1967 riots. No, Kelley said, he hadn't and as he was saying it he reached for a piece of memo paper and jotted down a note to himself to read it. Then he spoke about the proportion of blacks in the FBI.

"We are making special efforts, whenever we have the need for recruits, to get blacks. There are roughly 35 people to a class of recruits and we haven't had a class now since Jan. 1; the next one will be in the latter part of June or early July. We do very definitely want this [black] representation, but remember we do have certain requirements and we're also up against high-caliber competition from other branches."

It's clear, he says, that he's heading the FBI "in an era when great changes and adjustments must be made, as a result of many things. Watergate is one of them. And Big Brother. The computer."

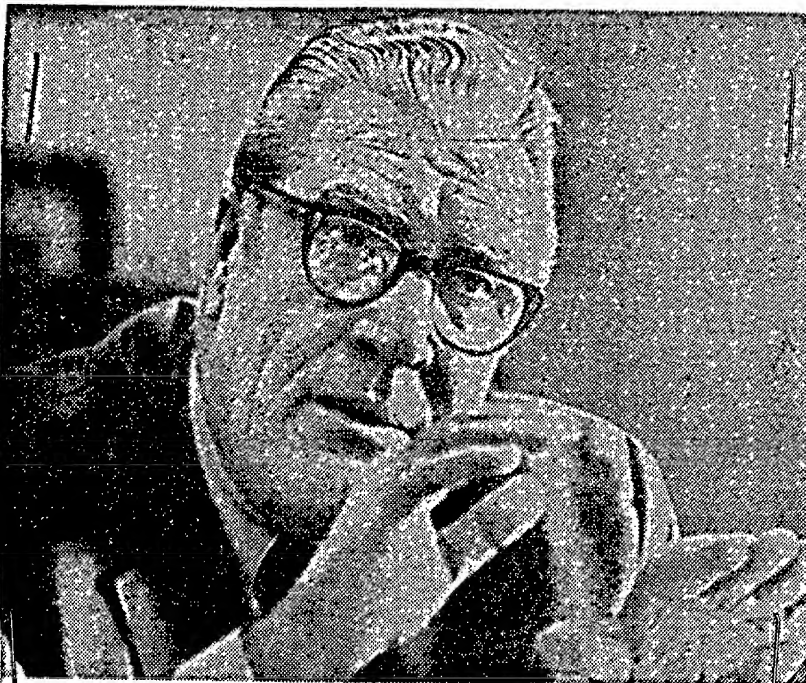

But you put computers in at Kansas City, Mr. Kelley.

"Yes, sir."

He let it lie there. Finally, a personal question. Had the Director asked to see the interviewer's FBI file before sitting for this interview?

For the first time, Kelley bridled. "Mr. Tallmer," he said glancing at the name on a slip of paper before him, "the first time I heard your name was when they asked if I'd see you, and the second time was when I saw it on this piece of paper. I don't know if you have an FBI file unless you ever applied for a federal job."

Well, the interviewer once had, in the distant past, and there is such a file. Would the interviewer be allowed by the Director to see it? "No, sir, you cannot," said Clarence M. Kelley, sagaciously but emphatically.

Kelley Foresees More Open FBI

By Ricardo Hinojosa

"We represent and do not rule" were Federal Bureau of Investigation Director Clarence M. Kelley's emphatic words as he addressed a group of about 200 on March 26 at the Harvard Law School Forum in the Ames Courtroom.

Kelley was introduced by Professor James Vorenberg who mentioned this was the first time an FBI Director had spoken at the Law School and explained that Kelley wanted the FBI "to operate more openly." Kelley carried this openness theme throughout his address by stressing that the Bureau was presently "geared to change and innovation."

The FBI Director, who was appointed to his position last July by President Nixon, alluded several times to his desire to report to groups such as the Forum on what the FBI was doing and to gain insights from his audiences regarding what the organization was doing wrong.

After giving a brief description of the FBI structure in which he stated that it is directly under the Department of Justice, Kelley said he felt "no discomfort because we are under the Attorney General." Since the FBI is in the Executive Branch it is in effect under the President but "this does not mean that I'm bound by self-imposed restrictions that may come from the Department, the Attorney General, or the President."

Admitting that some of the recent Watergate scandals have hurt the FBI's image, Kelley said "the difficulty has been minimal." He added he had "not been at any time subjected to any political pressures nor have had to do anything illegal."

Kelley, who previously served as an FBI agent and for 12 years was head of the Kansas City, Missouri police force, stated that when a person speaks of law enforcement he thinks of "integrity, integrity, and integrity." It was his conclusion that this is what the FBI strives for in its operations.

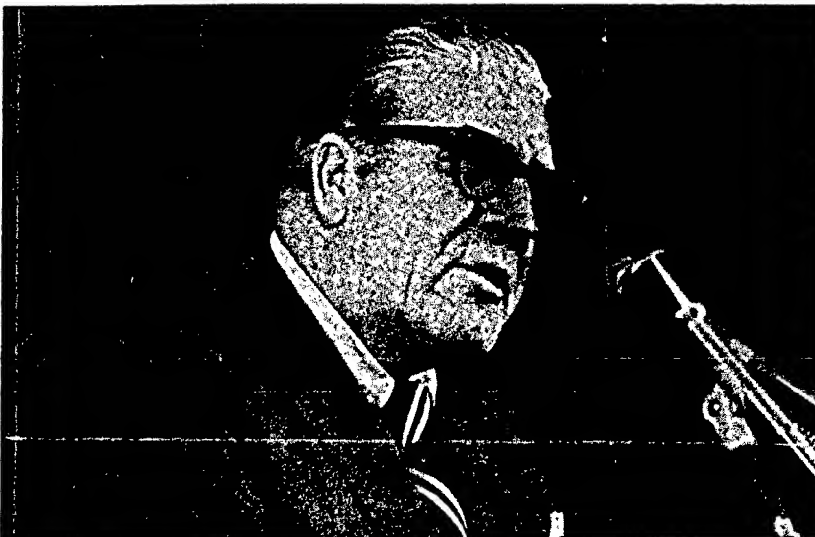

"You can listen to me sell the FBI, but nothing sells you better than performance," he continued. As examples of the Bureau's "good solid performance" the FBI head proudly recited that out of ten recent kidnappings, nine had been solved by the organization.

The FBI Director's remarks were followed by a lengthy question and answer session. The session opened with a surprising charge by two members of the National Caucus of Labor Committees that Vorenberg was involved in a Central Intelli-and only 2.2% of those have been put on computers.

Responding to other questions on the same subject, Kelley stated "we're on the throes of a study" of the criteria for opening up security type investigation files and legislation will have to be presented to Congress on the subject. He listed some reasons which he feels go against opening up the files, such as the protection of informants. He went on to promise "that we will gence Agency plot under the Law Enforcement Assistance Act grants. Kelley very politely brushed these comments aside.

Kelley did face some more serious questions including one from Vorenberg asking about FBI files on individuals. The FBI chief responded that "most of the difficulty arises over rap sheets" which cover arrests and convictions. He assured his audience that if a person wants to see his file "you may do so." However, it was pointed out by FBI Assistant Director Wason G. Campbell, who is in charge of the Computers Division, that a person must submit a set of fingerprints and a $5 fee before he can receive his file.

Campbell, who sat next to Kelley at the podium, also pointed out that an ability to see a file applies only for arrest and conviction records and does not include field investigation reports. There are presently 21 million arrest records on file maintain the sacredness of these files" and that the FBI is "very assiduous in protecting an individual."

Another area covered by the questions was the guidelines used to carry out domestic security investigations. Kelley reacted to such questions by stating that in order for such an investigation to be started it must be an activity reported by a "reliable source" and one which will lead to a "prosecutable offense" or overthrow of the government by violence. The FBI would rather not have to carry out such investigations but unfortunately we do have activities "which present a danger to our country," he maintained.

"We've always had and have today a strong foreign intelligence threat," charged Kelley in stating that domestic security investigation must be continued.

Dear Bob:

Your letter of March 14, 1974, could not have been more timely. This is one of the few talk shows that I have participated in and have been considering going on some of the national network shows. I have been somewhat apprehensive about doing this, and in view of my relatively new position as Director and now having had my baptism, it is encouraging to learn that I may have done a fairly good job.

As I mentioned to you while we were together on a couple of pleasant occasions, I always look forward to seeing you and hope that whenever you are in town you let me know so we can get together. I treasure your counsel and would like to talk with you about some matters which are giving me some concern. I don't know when this can be, but perhaps while I am in New York on occasion or while you are here in Washington.

At any rate, again thank you very much for your kind letter.

Sincerely,

1st Clarence

SENSTUDY 75

This informative memorandum, for record purposes, is to record a telephone call from former Assistant Director Robert Wick to Supervisor S. F. Phillips of the Senstudy 75 Project.

Legal Counsel to Mr. J. B. Adams memorandum, 11/5/75, advised that Wick, a vice president of Pan American World Airways in New York City, was in telephonic touch with Mr. Mintz concerning a telephone call Wick had received from Senate Select Committee (SSC) Staff Member [] at which time [] requested Wick's presence in Washington, D. C., for a Staff interview. The memorandum relates that [] told Wick the interview concerned a matter relating to Wick's employment and that [] did not further describe the subject matter of the interview. Wick was uncertain as to the possible subject matter and asked Mr. Mintz's advice. It was then determined by Supervisor [] of Mr. Mintz's office that the subject matter was Martin Luther King, Jr. [] determined this by telephoning Epstein.

Wick telephoned Phillips 11/6/75 seeking information relating to the procedures for the interview, Wick indicating that he was planning to come to Washington, D. C., for interview by Epstein at 10:00 a.m., 11/7/75.

Wick was appropriately briefed, as we have been doing with numerous other interviewees, as to procedure, particularly being told that he did not have to answer questions outside the scope of the indicated subject matter because the subject matter was all he was cleared from his confidentiality agreement with the FBI for discussion. He was also told of the four general privileged areas concerning which he did not have to answer questions, such as information relating to sensitive investigative techniques, information which might identify confidential sources, etc. Wick offered to mail to the Bureau a statement concerning the interview and he was thanked by Phillips for this.

Wick made it a point to advise Phillips that he was rather annoyed at [] approach to him, particularly that Wick had tried on more than one occasion during the telephone conversation with [] to pry from [] the subject matter of the interview but [] persisted in not advising him.

[] has advised that, when he called [] at Mr. Mintz's behest, he asked [] why he did not tell Wick the subject matter of the interview and [] reply was that Wick had not asked him. (It should be noted that, when [] had the conversation with [] it was before Wick's call to Phillips.)

OBSERVATIONS:

The foregoing represents two improprieties on the part of []. The first concerns the fact that, contrary to agreed-upon procedures, he contacted Wick prior to advising the Bureau of his intention to interview Wick. The second concerns divergent reports to us on the Wick-[] conversation. Wick made it absolutely clear that he pressed [] for specificity as to the subject matter of the

he was not asked by Wick. It is the personal observation

For record purposes, Robert E. Wick, who retired as an Assistant Director in 1967 and now is a Vice President of Pan American World Airlines in New York, has contacted us to advise that an author named Curt Gentry is beginning research on a book concerning the late Director J. Edgar Hoover.

According to Mr. Wick, Gentry telephoned him in New York this week and requested an appointment to interview Mr. Wick. Gentry stated that he is beginning research on a book concerning Mr. Hoover, which book Gentry said will require two years of work and, therefore, will not be published before 1977.

Gentry described himself to Mr. Wick as the author of a book concerning the "Manson Family." (This is the book entitled "Helter Skelter: The True Story of the Manson Murders" on which Gentry collaborated with Vincent Bugliosi.) Gentry also told Mr. Wick that Min Yee, a former member of the "Newsweek" staff, is assisting him in his research for the Hoover book and that he (Gentry) and/or Yee will be in Washington in about a week to contact Washington-area individuals concerning Mr. Hoover.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

Bufiles contain no information identifiable with Gentry. The 1974 edition of the "Paperback Books in Print" lists Gentry as the author of four books, including "Madames of San Francisco" and two others whose titles indicate they relate to California.

Min Yee obviously is identical with Min Sun Yee, a journalist born in Baltimore, Maryland, in August, 1938, of Chinese parentage.

Mr. J. H. Campbell to Mr. Moore Memorandum
RE: CURT GENTRY, PLAN TO WRITE BOOK CONCERNING J. EDGAR HOOVER.

The April 6, 1970, issue of "Newsweek" contains an article by Yee entitled "Cuba: The New Left Cuts Cane" identifying him as a "Newsweek" correspondent regularly assigned to San Francisco who traveled to Cuba with the second Venceremos Brigade contingent from the United States. In this article, Yee states that some members of the Brigade wanted control over the articles he wrote -- which condition Yee refused. Yee was said to have gone to Cuba strictly for reportorial purposes and not out of affinity for the Cuban form of government. (105-204597)

For a brief period in the early 1970s, Yee was Managing Editor (purportedly an unpaid position) for the English language version of the "San Francisco Journal," a newspaper with an editorial policy described as pro-People's Republic of China, anti-Taiwan, and neutral on Sino-American relations. Yee also was a member of a welcoming committee for a 1972 visit of a Chinese Communist table tennis team. (105-241227 & 105-204597)

The "Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature" lists Yee as having written three articles in 1972-73 for the pro-New Left magazine "Ramparts" and as author of an article entitled "Red Star Over San Francisco" for the "Saturday Review" in 1972.

Dear Clarence:

The two articles on you and the FBI featured in the New York Times this week and the current issue of Newsweek leave absolutely nothing to be desired. You and you alone in one short year, starting from practically scratch, have built and structured the credibility of the FBI in a truly incredible manner.

Articles such as the New York Times and Newsweek hitting this New England area at a time when liberalism and permissiveness is abroad in the land will continue to convince those listening to and reading the news media that things are well with the FBI with you at the helm, and that is a great accomplishment Clarence. You and your men should keep it up and keep the steam on. As you know, I and others fought that battle for many years and you folks are keeping it up. In my book you, McDermott and company are doing a tremendous job.

Best personal regards.
